Florian Steiner, Claude Community Ambassador Munich

Florian Steiner is a Claude Community Ambassador in Munich and helps agencies, consultancies and SMEs work productively with Claude.

Who this is for

For all. SME owners, founders and CEOs who want Claude as a thinking partner for real decisions, not just a task assistant. No coding background required.

What you will leave with

- 1 See Claude as a thinking partner for leaders, not an assistant.
- 2 Practice two concrete routines: a daily briefing with e-mail triage, and a chief of staff workflow with trust levels.
- 3 Run your own advisory board: get structured, opposing perspectives on a real decision you are facing.
